Our list of Executive officers has suffered changes this year. Miss Hope S. Martyn who came to us in somewhat delicate health, found her strength unequal to the confinement and pressure of work in our rooms, and in June she left us for a period of rest. It was hoped a long summer vacation would restore her, hut in August she sent her resignation, saying that though she was improving, it was not thought wise to at this time resume her duties. It was with regret we felt obliged to yield to...
