I WAS A CHILD SPY

Tate Publishing. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Perfect Paperback. 152 pages. Dimensions: 8.0in. x 5.2in. x 0.5in. During World War Two, Constantine Bouboulis was a child who loved ships, and found himself by strange coincidence in the right place at the right time to observe and inform on the movements of German navy vessels. By observing ship preparations, he was able to determine the timing of convoy departures from their naval base near Piraeus. Avoiding danger, and eluding capture, Constantine was able to obtain information that would prove critical to the war effort. During the occupation of Athens and through the struggle and danger of everyday life in wartime, Constantine became embroiled in successful efforts to thwart the enemy from the Nazis on the street corners to Rommel himself. Join Constantine on a historical journey that is both exciting, and true, and help him realize the experience of a lifetime, in I Was a Child Spy. Author Constantine Bouboulis is a PhD Organic Chemist. He was born in Greece, completed his education in the US and he is an inventor and holder of numerous patents and author or co-author of several scientific publications including the subject of Metabolism of Cholesterol. He was written in Whos Who in the East in the Science and Engineering section. He is President of Chem Comp Systems, Inc which was created by him and his late wife Deborah. He enjoys his three children and two grandchildren and resides in New Jersey. His hobbies are fishing, painting and writing. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg, OR, La Vergne, TN. Perfect Paperback.
