The dull gnomes I ween, gave it glittering sheen, Till yellow as gold it became; The nymphs of the sea made the opal to be A beacon of emerald flame. The many tints glow, they come and they go At bidding of spirits abhorr d. When one ray is bright, in the bosom of white, Its hue tells the fate of its lord. For yellow hints wealth, and blue meaneth health. While green forbodes passing of gloom, But beware of the red, tis an omen of dread, Portending disaster and doom.
