From Jarrow to Java: (On a Beer Scooter)

By Joe Writeson

Createspace. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 322 pages. Dimensions: 8.0in. x 5.2in. x 0.7in. A book based on some of the unique characters and situations encountered in the course of a large construction project in East Java during a crucial time in Indonesia's history. The cast includes all the usual suspects Europeans, Australians, Americans etc. but the starring roles are Indonesians. Centred around the building of an Independent Power Plant consisting of eight coal-fired power stations, distribution system and extensive infrastructure with over ten thousand employees at the height of construction activities. The account is based around the job, the impact on the area, the people, the ladies, the pubs, the problems, the perceptions. . . and misconceptions. Featuring an introduction to Javanese customs and culture plus their effect on interaction between expats and locals, including the often weird and wonderful way that Indonesians view foreigners . . . plus how some Westerners behave when given the keys to the sweetie shop. The timescale covers immediately before, during and after the downfall of the Soeharto regime. A lot of the characters recur throughout the stories, some of the chapters are linked or cross...

Reviews

I actually started looking over this publication. It really is really interesting through studying period. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.

Good electronic book and valuable one. It really is basic but unexpected situations in the 50 percent in the pdf. You won't really feel monotony at any moment of your time (that's what catalogues are for concerning when you ask me).
