Ritchie looks for love online. Their stories bookend In Pursuit's ten tales of growing old, growing up and growing young. A gripping and absorbing narrative of life, sex and love. Longlisted for the MsLexia 2013 Novel of the Year. Frank wants to die alone, but Jean has other ideas. Mike prefers the good old days when gay men really had something to fight about. At fifty-five, Jackie's pretty pleased he can still bed a nineteen-year-old. John places an ad in The Farmer's Journal looking for a male companion. Cathal's relationship is threatened when his celebrity lover confesses all to a newspaper. Conor admits to his dying father he is gay, only for his father's condition to stabilise. Ciaran hits rock bottom, until he sees John's ad in The Farmer's Journal. Scott's on a high when he meets Ben, all he needs to do is tell his girlfriend. Traveller Ritchie realises he can be out and proud online - any other alternative is fatal. In Pursuit is a progressive journey built around the universal emotions of love, friendship and the pursuit of happiness and how this can shift over time for us all.
