Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Follow the delightful story of four young children who get caught up in an unexpected adventure in the Alaskan wilderness. Fun and entertaining from beginning to end! I read it to my 6 year old and he was hanging on every word! I appreciated the surprise ending. The story has you guessing, as it leads you on a fun, engaging adventure of four young children. Natalie Gustafson - Mother and Teacher I thought the story was funny. I liked it very much. I liked it when people thought Grandma was a witch. - Robert Klopp - Age 8 Children will lie still under the covers waiting with excitement as this wonderful story uncovers itself. Tony Tupper - Father and Grandfather Unique, a page-turner for adults, even. Trust your Grandma. - Greg Burkman This book is captivating and kids of all ages will enjoy reading it. It takes your imagination away where things are simple and full of adventure. - Ivy Tupper - Mother and Grandmother Alaskan Troll Eggs is a delightful story teaching us that the innocent imagination of children can lead us on an adventure through the Alaskan wilderness in search of Troll Eggs. - Sue and Dan Schaaf - Grandparents Alaskan Troll Eggs by Kathleen Wallace is a delightful stroll through a child's imagination and the insatiable thirst for adventure that resides therein. The writer perfectly captures the benign capriciousness of childhood as she follows the four children Robert, Leife, Jude, and Ky and their encounter with the strange, old woman and her troll eggs. Written in the passive voice of most children's books, Ms. Wallace's narrative...
