Acting upon Dr. Smocks report, and information from adjoining counties, a meeting was called, and, after careful consideration, the following was issued: QUARANTINE PROCLAMATION. State Board of Health, Bowling Green, Ky. , July 21, 1898. Whereas, Official information has come to this Board that smallpox is prevailing as an epidemic in Jackson county, in this state; and, Whereas, After due notice and repeated urging from this and the County Board of Health, the authorities of said county have persistently failed and refused to take any steps to prevent the spread of this highly dangerous and contagious disease within said county, or to adjoining counties, thus endangering the health, lives and commercial interests of the entire state: Now, therefore, be it known, That the State Board of Health of Kentucky, in the exercise of the authority vested in it by law, hereby declares Jackson county, and each of its inhabitants, to be in quarantine, and establishes a quarantine line along the entire boundary of said county, and forbids any person to enter or leave said county without a special permit from this Board, under the pains and penalties of law, which is a fine of not less than fifty nor more than five hundred dollars, or imprisonment in the county jail of not less than ten nor more than sixty days, or both...
